

MARY SMITH

Richmond, Virginia firstlast@email.com +1 (555) 555 - 5555

Registered nurse devoted to providing competent, safe nursing care to pediatric patients.

Key Qualifications

- Collaborates with multidisciplinary healthcare team of nine professionals to treat and manage complex pediatric diagnoses
- Utilized evidence-based practices and cross-cultural communication to develop over 200 pediatric patient care plans
- Possess an active registered nurse license in Virginia
- Received the Daisy Award in 2017, 2020, and 2022 for empathetic, compassionate, competent bedside care

Education

1234 School of Nursing, Richmond, Virginia 2010
Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN)

Professional Experience

ABCD Children's Hospital, Registered Nurse, 2012-present

- Provided comprehensive hands-on care for five patients, performing detailed assessments, creating individual daily care plans, and implementing complex treatments
- Served as a charge nurse in an 30-bed unit, creating nurse assignments, facilitating effective communication amongst the healthcare team, and assisting nurses in safe, quality care
- Administered medications and implemented a variety of nursing interventions, including inserting IVs, monitoring vital signs, tube feedings, and providing wound care

ABC Pediatric Primary Care, Registered Nurse, 2010 - 2012

- Collaborated with physician and three other nurses in creating a safe, relaxing environment for parents and their children
- Administered ASQ's, obtained patient measurements, and provided high quality patient and parent education
- Organized lactation support groups for mothers in the community, leading and facilitating groups of eight mothers at a time

Skills

Organized; Attentive to detail; Flexible; Empathetic; Time management; Communication; Critical Thinker

Licenses and Certifications

- BLS/PALS
- Certified pediatric nurse (PNCB)

Registered Nurse (RN)