

Alison Gale

Louisville, Kentucky firstlast@email.com (555) 555-5555

Experienced pediatric nurse of eight years seeking a part-time position in the pediatric intensive care unit. Dedicated to providing quality, evidenced-based care to children and empowering parents through education.

Key Qualifications

- Detail oriented, empathetic, and strong communication skills
- Possess an active RN license in Kentucky
- Specialized nursing care in pediatric intensive care

Education

Toy Story University, Louisville, KY, 20XX
Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Professional Experience

St. Paul's Children's Hospital, Registered Nurse, 20XX–present
Pediatric intensive care unit

- Create evidence-based care plans for pediatric patients with complex health conditions.
- Provide care to pediatric patients after surgery, including vital sign monitoring, assessing lung and bowel sounds, pain assessment, pulse checks, and advancing diet.
- Collaborate with multidisciplinary healthcare team of three surgeons, two respiratory therapists, one physical therapist and six nurses to provide comprehensive care to over 100 patients.

Disney Children's Clinic, Registered Nurse, 20XX–20XX

- Administered immunizations and provided education to over 300 patients and their parents.
- Organized and facilitated parenting classes for community members, leading groups of 10 parents at a time.
- Conducted developmental screenings, such as ASQs, and implemented appropriate referrals to 75 pediatric patients.

Skills

Compassionate; Flexible; Critical thinking; Emotional intelligence; Patience; Teamplayer

Certifications and Licenses

- Basic life support (BLS)
- Registered nurse (RN)
- Pediatric advanced life support (PALS)
- Pediatric nursing certification (PED-BC)