

Stacy Lu, RN

Middle Springs, PA firstlast@email.com (555) 555-5555

Empathetic and detail-oriented school nurse with a passion for helping young people thrive. Comfortable with all developmental stages due to broad nursing experience. Able to offer support for each student's individual needs.

Key Qualifications

- Clear communicator and strong organizational skills
- Possess an active RN license in Pennsylvania
- Specialized experience in school settings

Education

Top Nursing University, Philadelphia, PA, 20XX
Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Professional Experience

Quakerville Elementary, School Nurse, 20XX–present

- Responsible for first aid and medication administration for 500 students in grades K–2 in the health office and during field trips.
- Conduct annual health screenings
- Perform administrative duties, including data entry, filing, and other tasks ensuring the organization of the health office.
- Conduct COVID screenings for students and staff.
- Maintain COVID case and symptom tracker.
- Communicate pertinent information to other staff members and families.
- Provide health education to students and families.

Upper Town High School, School Nurse, 20XX–20XX

- Provided first aid to 2,000 high school students in grades 9–12.
- Communicated pertinent health information to students, parents, and faculty members.
- Ensured vaccines were up to date and contacted families about needed updates.
- Ensured student charts were up to date.
- Conducted height, weight, hearing, and vision screenings.

Skills

Fluent in Spanish and Mandarin; Powerchart; Early childhood development

Certifications and Licenses

- Basic life support (BLS)
- Registered nurse (RN)