

George Garcia

Concord, New Hampshire firstlast@email.com (555) 555-5555

Experienced neonatal nurse of five years seeking a per diem position. Developed strong advocacy and critical thinking skills during RN role at Concord Medical Center. Esteemed nursing professional committed to providing high-quality, safe neonatal care.

Key Qualifications

- Detail-oriented, compassionate, and effective communicator
- Possess an active, unencumbered RN license in New Hampshire
- Specialized nursing care in low to moderate-risk neonates and infants

Education

Sprout University, Concord, NH 20XX
Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Professional Experience

Concord Medical Center, Registered Nurse, 20XX–present
Neonatal Intensive Care Unit

- Provide specialized care to critically ill infants, including inserting IVs, respiratory care with ventilators, and obtaining daily weights.
- Educate parents' on infant care, equipment, condition, and procedures.
- Administer medications, titrate IV medications per orders, and monitor vital signs on two neonatal patients per shift.

Toddler Town Medical Office, Registered Nurse, 20XX–20XX

- Facilitated parenting classes with over 40 families, covering topics such as infant growth and development, breastfeeding, and healthy parent-child interactions.
- Oriented and trained 16 nurses, educating them on facility policies, procedures, and best practices.
- Performed newborn assessments on over 200 infants, including newborn screenings, assessing infant milestones, and obtaining vital signs.

Skills

Empathetic; Flexible; Organized; Time Management; Patient; Teamwork; Cultural Competence

Certifications and Licenses

- Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS)
- Registered nurse (RN)
- Neonatal Resuscitation Program (NRP)